CIVIL ACTION

CASE NO.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Didier Antoine (hereinafter referred to as “Plaintiff” unless indicated otherwise) hereby complains as follows against Vein Clinics of America, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as “Defendant” unless otherwise indicated), and avers as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff initiates the instant action to redress violations by Defendant of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C.S. §§ 2000a et. seq.) and violations of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act (“PHRA”).¹ As a result of Defendant’s unlawful actions, Plaintiff has suffered the damages as set forth herein.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1331, has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims because this civil action arises under a law of the United States. This Court may maintain supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state-law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because they arise out of the same common nucleus of operative facts as Plaintiff's federal claims herein.

3. This Court may properly maintain personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant's contacts with this state and this judicial district are sufficient for the exercise of jurisdiction over Defendant to comply with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, satisfying the standard set forth by the United States Supreme Court in International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310 (1945) and its progeny.

4. Venue is properly laid in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(1) and (c)(2), because Defendant resides in and/or conduct business in this judicial district.

PARTIES

5. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

6. Plaintiff is an adult male with an address as set forth in the above caption.

7. Defendant is an entity with locations throughout the United States (including the location at which Plaintiff worked in Wayne, PA) specializing in the medical treatment of vein disease.

8. At all times relevant herein, Defendant acted by and through its agents, servants and employees, each of whom acted at all times relevant herein in the course and scope of their employment with and for Defendant.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

10. Plaintiff is an adult male.

11. Plaintiff was hired by Defendant to work at its Wayne, Pennsylvania location.

12. Plaintiff worked for Defendant for approximately three (3) months as a vascular technician.

13. Plaintiff was the only male vascular technician throughout his employment with Defendant.

14. During his employment, Plaintiff was required to go through training; however, throughout his training with Defendant, he was treated in a discriminatory and disparate manner as compared to his female co-workers by his preceptor, Lisa Schoenwald.

15. For example, unlike his female counterparts, Plaintiff was treated in a derogatory manner, yelled at, refused help, and was subjected to discriminatory comments related to his gender.

16. For example, Schoenwald would tell Plaintiff “Male [vascular] techs never make it” and “you really need to figure out how to do this because males never really make it.”

17. Plaintiff complained about Defendant’s gender-related discriminatory behavior (as discussed supra) to Defendant’s management, including but not limited to Kenneth Lomax (Manager) whom thereafter informed Plaintiff that he reported Plaintiff’s concerns to Medical Director, Robert Singh.

18. Upon information and belief, Defendant’s management never properly resolved or investigated Plaintiff’s concerns of gender discrimination and instead terminated Plaintiff’s employment shortly after his last complaint of gender discrimination.

19. Plaintiff was told that he was being terminated because he did not successfully complete training after twelve (12) weeks; however, before his termination, Lomax informed

Plaintiff that there were numerous individuals who were given substantially more than 12 weeks to complete training.

Count I

Violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended

([1] Gender Discrimination; [2] Retaliation; [3] Hostile Work Environment)

20. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

21. Defendant is an “employer” within the meaning of the Title VII because at all times relevant herein, Defendant has employed at least fifty (15) or more full-time employees within the present or preceding calendar year and engages in a business that affects interstate commerce.

22. Plaintiff exhausted his administrative remedies (with respect to his Title VII claims) because he timely filed Charges with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) and filed the instant lawsuit within ninety (90) days of receiving a right-to-sue letter and/or notices of case closure from the EEOC.

23. Plaintiff was subjected to a hostile work environment during his period of employment due to his gender and/or complaints of gender discrimination through disparate treatment, pretextual admonishment, and demeaning and/or discriminatory treatment towards him.

24. Plaintiff complained to Defendant’s management regarding the discriminatory behavior that he was being subjected to within the workplace; however, Defendant’s management did not properly investigate or resolve his concerns of discrimination.

25. Shortly after making his aforementioned complaints of gender discrimination, Plaintiff was terminated from his position with Defendant for completely pretextual reasons.

26. Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that he was terminated from Defendant because of his gender and/or in retaliation for complaining of gender discrimination.

27. These actions as aforesaid constitutes violations of Title VII.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court enter an Order providing that:

A. Defendant is to be prohibited from continuing to maintain its illegal policy, practice or custom of discriminating/retaliating against employees and is to be ordered to promulgate an effective policy against such unlawful acts and to adhere thereto;

B. Defendant is to compensate Plaintiff, reimburse Plaintiff and make Plaintiff whole for any and all pay and benefits Plaintiff would have received had it not been for Defendant's illegal actions, including but not limited to past lost earnings, future lost earnings, salary, pay increases, bonuses, medical and other benefits, training, promotions, pension, and seniority. Plaintiff should be accorded those benefits illegally withheld from the date he first suffered retaliation/interference/discrimination at the hands of Defendant until the date of verdict;

C. Plaintiff is to be awarded punitive damages, as permitted by applicable law, in an amount determined by the Court or trier of fact to be appropriate to punish Defendant for its willful, deliberate, malicious and outrageous conduct and to deter Defendant or other employers from engaging in such misconduct in the future;

D. Plaintiff is to be accorded any and all other equitable and legal relief as the Court deems just, proper and appropriate, including but not limited to, emotional distress and/or pain and suffering damages (where legally permitted);

E. Plaintiff is to be awarded the costs and expenses of this action and reasonable legal fees as provided by applicable federal and state law;

F. Any verdict in favor of Plaintiff is to be molded by the Court to maximize the financial recovery available to the Plaintiff in light of the caps on certain damages set forth in applicable federal law; and

G. Plaintiff's claims are to receive trial by jury to the extent allowed by applicable law. Plaintiff has also endorsed this demand on the caption of this Complaint in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b).

Respectfully submitted,

KARPF, KARPf & CERUTTI, P.C.
